

Welcome

We are so glad you're here! Like, wherever you are...your living room, a bus, or sitting in a cozy rocking chair...we're just glad you're here sitting with a Kaleidoscope Learn Together Journal in your hands. We hope this journal does a few things in your life...

1. That it draws you closer to God.
2. We hope you're encouraged as you learn the Bible.
3. That your family is strengthened through it as you talk to one another about God.

So here's how it works...

Each spread (two pages opened up) is one day. There's a "Kid page" and an "Adult page." Decide together on a book of the Bible to read. Maybe you'll read a Kaleidoscope Bible or perhaps you'll both use an adult translation. It works either way!

After you read, work on your side of the spread and then pass the journal to the other person. Later that day, they can do their side of the spread and read what you shared. (see a sample spread on the next page!)

We hope this journal gives you a way to easily connect over the Bible and develop healthy habits of reading it in community. If you feel overwhelmed at first, don't get discouraged. All good habits take time to develop! Try doing it every other day until you work into a daily rhythm. If you miss a day, don't worry! It just means you are human. Pick it back up the next day!

We hope you absolutely love this journal and treasure the memories you'll make using it.

We're cheering you on!
The Kaleidoscope Team

Today's date: 12 - 1 - 2021 I read: Joshua 1 in Over the River

It made me feel...      because...

I'm glad that Israel made it through the desert finally!

Some things I noticed...

I am beginning to notice that God makes crazy promises to people like Abraham and then He waits to see if they believe Him. I think this is called faith.

Questions I have...

How will the little kids across the Jordan River who can't swim?

Why did Israel make bricks in Egypt? Were they building something?

Will Joshua be a good leader or a bad leader?

I'm praying for...

I'm starting to think about Christmas and how some kids may not be able to have presents. I want to pray for ways to help them.

Something I want to share with you...

I really liked that dinner you made last night! It was yummy and I hope you make it again sometime.

Adult page

Today's date: 12 - 1 - 2021 I read: Joshua 1

It made me feel...      because...

It seems like Israel is about to get a BIG gift!

Some things I noticed...

Several times in this opening chapter, God talks about obeying his word. It seems like obedience will be super important for God's people.

Questions I have...

I wonder how much stuff each person had to carry with them through the desert.

How long will it take to get everyone across the Jordan River?

I'm praying for...

I'm glad you're thinking about other children as Christmas approaches. Can we pray about this together? I'm also praying for our neighbors, who I want to invite to church.

Something I want to share with you...

THANKS! I really liked that dinner too! I'm excited for your basketball season coming up soon. It reminds me of when I played sports as a kid. I'll show you pictures!
